Thursday, June 12, 2025: Siracusa/Modica/Frigintini/Niscemi

Enjoy breakfast at the hotel prior to checking out and traveling to Modica, a city renowned for its architecture. You'll then visit one of the oldest chocolate producers in Italy for a tasting and tour with the sixth-generation artisan confectioners. This sweet theme for the day will continue as the group travels to Frigintini for a unique chocolate lunch. After the day's activities, you'll continue the journey to Niscemi to unwind in the hillside splendor at a unique resort winery. Located in a restored 18th century manor house, the baglio, or fortified estate, is situated atop a hill with stunning views and grape vines that line the hillside. Here, you'll enjoy a visit to the winery and a tasting dinner before an overnight stay at the estate.

Friday, June 13, 2025: Niscemi/Castelvetro/Trapani

After departing Niscemi, you'll travel seemingly back in time to Castelvetro, a city that dates back to the 12th and 13th centuries. It is here that a tasting lunch and visit at a special bakery awaits, where you'll learn about the typical pane nero of Castelvetro. Afterward, you'll travel to the seaside city of Trapani and check in to a modern hotel for a three-night stay, prior to enjoying a group dinner.

Saturday, June 14, 2025: Trapani/Erice/Trapani

A hands-on cooking adventure awaits, but first you'll travel to the medieval village of Erice, a city with ancient origins that offers breathtaking views and a storied architectural footprint. You'll enjoy free time in this hilltop city with plenty to explore, but you'd be amiss if you didn't stop into a bakery or two along the way. Later in the day, get ready to roll up your sleeves and work with a professional chef for a hands-on cooking class dinner, centered around preparing a traditional Sicilian meal.

Sunday, June 15, 2025: Trapani/Marsala/Trapani

Marsala is a city renowned for its wine that sits on the westernmost tip of Sicily.
